

Popcorn, Pillows, and Pajamas Permission Form

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Our school recommends attaining parental permission for your student to view movies that are used in our curriculum, or that are selected by our teachers, which are rated PG-13 or R. MAP has decided to show a voluntary film for the students to get together and celebrate the hard work they've accomplished together. Some of the teachers are offering extra credit or activity points for coming to the event. The film we will be showing is Love Actually, which, though not educational is a warm spirited film, which the teachers feel is appropriate for the night.

The film is rated in the top 500 on IMDB.com and described as follows:

The characters are falling in love, falling out of love, some are with right people, some are with the wrong people, some are looking to have an affair, some are in the period of mourning; a capsule summary of reality. Love begins and love ends. They flirt a lot. They are all flirting with love. At all ages and social levels, love is the theme. Romantic love and brotherly love is the hotchpotch through out the movie. Most of the movie is filmed in London, during Christmas and the characters all ended up at Heathrow airport a very uplifting note.

The movie will be free, though donations to the MAP program are encouraged and food will be sold. The students are encouraged to come this Thursday night at 6pm wearing their finest Pajamas and carrying their favorite teddy bears and pillows. If your son/daughter is going to attend this event please sign the permission slip below.

Sincerely,
the MAP staff

Student Name (Printed) _____

____ Yes, I give my son/daughter permission to view Love Actually which is rated R.

Guardian signature/date _____
